Obituary

Reginald Davis (also known as “Reggie”) was born on August 13, 1968, to Richard Norman Davis and Bobbie Jean Davis.

He grew up in Prince George’s County, Maryland, where he attended Prince George’s County Public Schools and graduated from Crossland Senior High School. Reginald furthered his education by taking courses at Prince George’s Community College and the University of the District of Columbia to master the skills of a duplicating operator and bindery technician. He worked at the Nordstrom Distribution Center as a trainer.

In 1998, Reggie met the love of his life and best friend, Monique. They married in 2005. The couple loved to dine at different restaurants in and around the Washington metropolitan area. Most would consider Reggie a “foodie;” however, he loved seafood—it was his favorite food of choice. Although a seafood lover, he was always open to trying different types of cuisines, and would tell others about the places he enjoyed so that they would go there too.

Reggie, a man of faith, accepted Jesus Christ as his personal Lord and Savior as a child and rededicated his life to the Lord as an adult. He joined From the Heart Church Ministries in 1989 and was actively involved in the life of the church. He was a faithful member of the Archives Ministry. Moreover, he loved his church and enjoyed attending the monthly Men’s Fellowship.

As a sports enthusiast, Reggie was committed to being in front of the television on Sundays to watch football. He especially looked forward to football season to watch his favorite team, the Washington Football Team. Even though they would make his blood boil most games, like a loyal fan, he still stood by them. Reggie also enjoyed watching reruns of television shows. And as a proud fur dad, he enjoyed spending time with his two Yorkshire Terriers, Moggie Ray Davis and Miss Minx ReggieNique Davis.

He was a very giving, caring and compassionate person who loved being with his family and friends. Whenever anyone invited him to an event, he was certain to mark his calendar and inform his wife so she could be ready to tag along with him. Furthermore, if Reggie saw a stranger in need and he had the means—loose change or dollars, he would give it to them—no questions asked.

Reggie will be greatly missed by those who knew and loved him. He leaves to cherish his memory his wife of 16 years, Monique Michelle Davis; daughter, Jade K. Davis; parents, Richard and Bobbie Davis; niece, Janae Douglas; nephews, Raphael, Rafiq, and RayRay Douglas; in-laws, Emizie Abbot and Patricia Abbot; a host of cousins and close friends who he loved to get together with as often as he could; and his From the Heart Church Ministries family.

Call to Christ

Committal

Reggie & Monique

I never thought our time here would end of you being my husband and my very best friend. You definitely did your job of loving me and protecting and providing for our little family. You always made sure I had a smile on my face and did whatever you could for me with such class and grace. With tears in my eyes and my heart broken in two, I will miss you every single day through and through. I just wish that this nightmare would come to an end, so that I could see you here with me, until MY dying end...instead, you lived with me until your day was done and I am ever so grateful that I was your number one!

Moggie, Minx and I will miss you so, but we now understand that you had to go. Thank you is something I often said, because you always came through just as you said. I cannot even imagine how my life is going to be without you, but I will do the best I can to live, and not stress. You have always kept me calm by making me laugh all day long. As my personal provider, photographer and chef, you made sure you gave me your absolute best! I just can't stop thinking of how much I will miss you so, but I know I have to let you go. With you constantly on my mind and forever in my heart, I will remember you as my favorite part! You loved me so hard until your very end, and I just can't wait to see you again, just to hold you tight and kiss your face again and tell you about everything that I have been doing on my end. I will try my best to remain strong without you here by my side, but I can't promise I won't do it without a cry. I pray that you are now resting in heavenly peace, as you are now watching over me.

I've known you for so long now, you were perfect for me from the start, no one could ever replace you in my heart. As I say my final farewell, I will try hard to stay well and keep you safe in my heart just like I did from our very start. I will be sure to keep all of our close secrets tucked inside just as I promised when we were side by side.

You are honestly the nicest person that I have ever met, I feel so thankful I chose you and we lived our life without any regrets. This was hard to even write without your input and thoughts, but I just compiled everything from the bottom of my heart.

I love you so much Reggie and I will miss you dearly, I thank God that I have so many memories that I will keep near me.

Love Unimpeded

Author: Reginald Davis

*Sometimes love can be funny
No matter how bad you want it
It often seems too hard to find
But you just can't give up on it*

You must only decide to no longer rely On what this superficial world requires That's when you will see love as it should be Void of all the selfish desires

*I guess you could say
I've been blessed in a way
Few others can truly attest
See! What works for me Might not work for you, but
Who are we to second guess?*

*See I've found something splendid
The way love was intended not Perfect but honest and true
And Monique don't be embarrassed
You are all that I cherish and
The reason why I feel the way I do
And I can say that I mean it
At not only giving a love that I Wanted, but a love that I needed*

Tribute to Reggie

Author: Bobbie Davis

*Reggie now you've had your heavenly birth
You will certainly be missed down here on earth*

*By all of your family and friends,
But if we are saved we will see you and Ray again.*

*You would tell me how much you missed your big brother,
And now you all are in heaven with each other.*

*My heart is full, my eyes have tears,
Because you all weren't with us many years.
But I thank God for the time you all were here,
And don't you worry we will one day appear.*

*In heaven with you all and Jesus
Our Big Brother,*

And then we will all be hugging each other.

Because we won't have to worry about Covid 19,

For the spirit of God would have made us all clean.

*We will all be dancing around heaven all day
And there we will forever stay.
To God be the glory for what He has done,*
