Obituary

Charlie Louis Jones (also known as “Sir Charles”) was born to the late Collie Robert Jones and Estella Johnson Jones on May 21, 1939, in Colquitt, Georgia. God called his faithful servant home on December 6, 2021.

Charlie graduated from Bethel High School in Colquitt, Georgia; and later moved to Albany, New York, where he met and married Rose Lee Bickley. To that union three children were born. He also fathered two sons by Carol Wilson. After Rose’s death, Charlie married the late Brenda Chappell of Fort Washington, Maryland. From their marriage he was blessed with a godson, grandson, and a great-grandson—a family he loved and cherished as his own. Family was important to him. He was known to be a very special brother-in-law, uncle, cousin, stepdad, Pop, and Pop-pop. Similarly, friends were important as well. Over the years, he enjoyed spending time with them through activities such as hunting, fishing, and working out at the gym.

Charlie was appreciated and respected by many. He was a wise, thoughtful person---always willing to lend a listening ear---always encouraging others along the way.

Charlie a man of faith, accepted Jesus Christ as his personal Lord and Savior and joined St. Paul Missionary Baptist Church. In 1989, he joined From the Heart Church Ministries where he received the uncompromising Word of God; and continued to grow in his Christian walk. He will be greatly missed by all who knew and loved him.

Charlie leaves to cherish his memory three sons: Charles Tony of Albany New York, Nathaniel Jones (Sokha) of Texas, and Louis Lygett (Delnore) of Albany, New York; daughter, Lorraine Jones Goodnight of Albany, New York; a special friend and caregiver whom he grew to love, Linda Murphy of Fort Washington, Maryland; five grandchildren; sisters: Joyce Bush of Colquitt, Georgia, Calton Pulliam (Nate) of Albany, New York, Gladis Hall of Newton, Georgia, and Audrey Lee of Jersey City, New Jersey; special friends, Nate and Jimmy Howard, hunting partners of Albany, New York; his special groups of gym, hunting, and fishing friends in Fort Washington, Maryland; and a very special friend, Maurice Davis, who loved to cook for him. Charlie will also be missed by other family members in Albany, New York; Colquitt, Georgia; Detroit, Michigan, and Maryland. They all loved him, but God loved him best!

Charlie was preceded in death by his son, Rodney Jones of Maryland; brother, Grady Jones of Albany, New York; and sister, Annie Lee Gammage of Detroit, Michigan.

Family Sentiments

Dear Charlie,

You were a very special brother-in-law, uncle, cousin, stepdad, Pop, and Pop-pop. God's light was so much a part of you. You were always there for us. We will always remember your love, your thoughtfulness, your warmth, your friendly smile, and your gentle spirit. You have laughed with us, cried with us, and supported us. We will always remember you at family gatherings. You shared your time, strength, and wisdom, but most importantly you shared your love. When you joined our family, we could always count on you to listen, understand, and encourage us. You showed us and taught us all how to:

*Be thankful for each new day,
Tomorrow is not promised;
Be forever grateful for family,
And hold them dear;
Always remember you are incredibly blessed.*

The earthly circle of our family is broken but we are forever thankful, grateful, and blessed to have had you in our family, and for everything that you have done. We miss you and will always love you.

Forever an Angel

As we wrap our minds around this sudden loss, our hearts still manage to smile. A calming peace surrounds our puzzled emotions, and memories of your unconditional love, strong will, and tower of strength will carry us for a lifetime. For God granted you a fulfilling life, not only were you a faithful and obedient Christian, but you were an amazing brother, friend, father (of all sorts) and husband. A giver of so much your heart was as pure as gold.

Thank you, dear Lord, for allowing me the opportunity to care for your son, Charlie.

Love, Sister Linda Murphy

*Granddad,
Because of you my heart knows the magic of true love.*

If Tears Could Build A Stairway

Author Unknown

*If tears could build a stairway
And memories a lane
I would walk right up to heaven
And bring you back again.*

*No farewell words were spoken
No time to say, "Goodbye"
You were gone before I knew it
And only God knows why*

*My heart still aches with sadness
And secret tears still flow
What it meant to love you
No one can ever know*

*But now I know you want me
To mourn for you no more
To remember all the happy times
Life still has much in store*

*Since you'll never be forgotten
I pledge to you today
A hollowed place within my heart
Is where you'll always stay*

Love, The Jones Family

A Limb Has Fallen

Author Unknown

*A limb has fallen from the family tree
I hear a voice that whispers grieve not for me
Remember the best times, the laughter, the songs
The good I lived while I was strong*

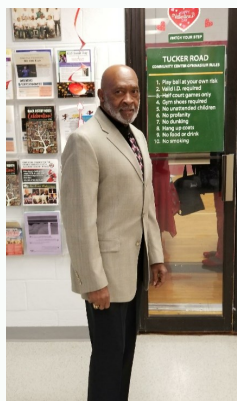

*Continue my heritage I'm counting on you
Keep on smiling, the sun will shine through
My mind is at ease, my soul is at rest
Remembering all, how I was truly blessed*

*Continue traditions no matter how small
Go on with your lives, don't stare at the walls
I miss you all dearly so keep up your chin
Until that fine day we're together again*

Love, Lygett, Tony, and Lorraine

Our Dad, he was our sun, moon, and stars. Our love for him will always be forever. We his family are both sad and proud that he is now in heaven. From the Sun, Moon, and Stars of our lives, R.I.P. Dad.
