Obituary

Laura Ann Hoban was born on March 17, 1946, in Washington, D.C., to William and Annie Pearl. She passed away unexpectedly on March 25, 2024, at the age of 78 after a sudden decline in her health.

Laura was raised in Washington, D.C., where she attended elementary, middle, and high schools in the District of Columbia. Her professional career included working for many years at The Pentagon in Arlington, Virginia, until she retired in 2001.

In 1965, Laura married Warren Hoban and together they had two sons. Laura, a doting mother, was more than happy to be the central figure in the lives of her sons. She was an awesome mother who provided for her children and always made sure they were safe. Additionally, she was a caring grandmother who enjoyed telling entertaining stories, sometimes with a hint of exaggeration.

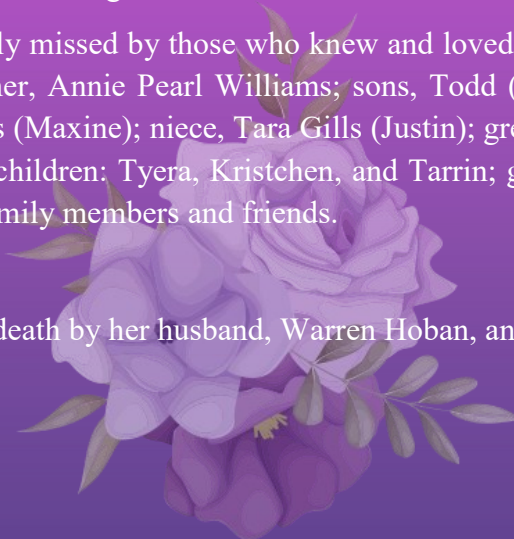

Laura had a very big heart, and would do anything for anybody, even giving her last dollar away. She loved to spend money. One of her most favorite things to do was shopping at Macy's, her preferred retail store—whether it was online or in-person. Vacationing was another hobby as she loved to travel. And she enjoyed eating chocolate cake—her favorite dessert.

Laura accepted Jesus Christ as her personal Lord and Savior and joined From the Heart Church Ministries in 1999. She genuinely loved being a part of her church, and her From the Heart family.

Laura had a beautiful wide smile that could light up an entire room. She cared very deeply for the people around her, and she will be remembered for all the heart she shared with her family, friends, and neighbors.

Laura Ann will be dearly missed by those who knew and loved her. She leaves to cherish her memories her mother, Annie Pearl Williams; sons, Todd (Kim) and Sean (Winnie); brother, Warren Daniels (Maxine); niece, Tara Gills (Justin); great-niece, Quinlynn; great-nephew, Primus; grandchildren: Tyera, Kristchen, and Tarrin; great-grandchild, Dax; and many other extended family members and friends.

Laura was preceded in death by her husband, Warren Hoban, and father, William Daniels.

AMAZING GRACE

Amazing grace! How sweet the sound;
that saved a wretch like me!
I once was lost, but now am found;
was blind but now I see

'Twas grace that taught my heart to fear,
and grace my fears relieved;
how precious did that grace appear,
the hour I first believed.

Through many dangers, toils and snares,
I have already come, 'tis grace hath brought me safe thus far,
and grace will lead me home.

When we've been there ten thousand years,
bright shining as the sun,
we've no less days to sing God's praise,
than when we first begun.

A Mother's Love

By Helen Steiner Rice

*A Mother's love is something that no one can explain,
It is made of deep devotion
and of sacrifice and pain,
It is endless and unselfish
and enduring come what may For nothing can destroy it or take that love away . . .*

*It is patient and forgiving
when all others are forsaking,
And it never fails or falters
even though the heart is breaking . . .*

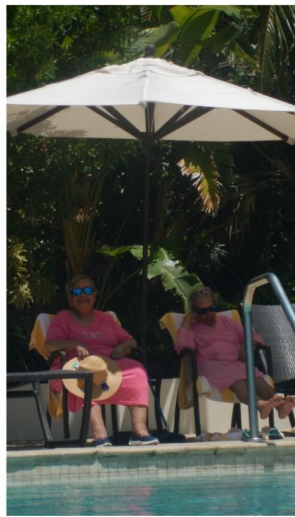

*It believes beyond believing
when the world around condemns,
And it glows with all the beauty of the rarest, brightest gems . . .*

*It is far beyond defining,
it defies all explanation,
And it still remains a secret
like the mysteries of creation . . .*

*A many splendoured miracle
man cannot understand
And another wondrous evidence of God's tender guiding hand.*
